

What does the Information Confidentiality Agreement cover?

This Agreement applies to the way www.usagreencard.com uses the collected personal information about users. Personal information is the information that can be correlated with the identity of the user (your name, address, email address, or phone number) and is not available from other public sources.

General information

www.usagreencard.com collects personal information about you when you register as a member of the Diversity Immigration Visa Program. When you register on www.usagreencard.com, we ask for some personal data, such as your first and last name, place of residence, email address, date of birth, gender, zip code, information about your profession, field of occupation, etc., and a photo of you as well. As soon as you register at www.usagreencard.com and agree with our services, you are not anymore an anonymous user for us.

www.usagreencard.com uses personal information only for the following purposes: submitting registered applications for participation in the Diversity Immigration Visa Program, research and providing anonymous reporting for external and internal users. By filling out the application form for participation in the Diversity Immigration Visa Program and confirming your agreement with the terms of the site www.usagreencard.com, owned by WBCS GROUP, LLC, you automatically agree to the terms of service.

Children

If children under 16 try to register on www.usagreencard.com on their own, we will automatically cancel these applications.

Transfer and disclosure of information www.usagreencard.com does not sell or transfer personal information about users to other persons or companies not associated with us, unless www.usagreencard.com provides the services you requested or when we have your consent to the above use of information.

Changes to the Privacy Policy

www.usagreencard.com may make changes to the Confidentiality Agreement without prior notice to the user. You can view the latest version of the Confidentiality Agreement at any time at: www.usagreencard.com

Privacy and security

We give limited access to your personal information only to those employees of www.usagreencard.com who, in our opinion, really need to use your information in order to provide you with services at your request or to perform their official duties.

To protect your personal information, we use physical, electronic and procedural security measures that comply with applicable law.
